Best Heat Pump Buying Guide - Consumer Reports

Paid a friend to replace my 2 air handler and heat pumps. These were the same units, one upstairs and one downstairs. I replaced them with identical new units from Rheem. They installed in the early spring and the ac worked great. Now that I have switched to heat the fan for the air handler never shuts off. It blows 24/7. The light indicating heat turns off once it reaches temp but the fan ...
